ITALY

Rev. Michael Brown and his wife, Janie, serve in northern Italy in the greater Milan metropolitan area, home to more than 8 million people. Since 2018, Rev. Brown has pastored Chiesa Riformata Filadelfia, a growing and vibrant confessional Reformed church. In addition to shepherding the local congregation, he co-hosts a weekly Italian-language podcast with fellow Reformed ministers and is working alongside other Reformed and Presbyterian churches across Italy to establish the country's first confessional Reformed denomination.

Rev. Andrea Ferrari labours in the Reformed Church of Perugia, five hours to the south, in another area very needy of the gospel message. Worship and Bible studies are held weekly.

MEXICO

Rev. Matthew VanDyken is pastor and missionary in Iglesia Vida Eterna in Tepic, Nayarit in central Mexico. With a population of 130 million people, Mexico's need for faithful gospel witness is overwhelming. While the National Presbyterian Church has planted churches in the south, in both central and northern Mexico there are very few Reformed churches. By God's grace the church in Tepic continues to be blessed and has strong leadership. It is currently looking for a bigger building to accommodate the needs of the growing congregation.

Through preaching, teaching, and social media resources, this work seeks to promote a Reformed understanding of the Christian faith amid spiritual darkness shaped by Eastern Orthodox superstition, decades of communism, and more recent European secularism."
